HARVARD REFERENCING GUIDE

Generally, a Harvard reference citation is formatted and listed in alphabetical order by the author’s last name:

Last name, First Initial. (Year published). Title. City: Publisher, Page(s).

If there are multiple sources by the same author, then citations are listed in order by the date of publication.

Listed on the following two pages is a guide on some specific Harvard reference citation formats and examples. For more citation formats and examples, including in-text citations, see:

www.citethisforme.com/harvard-referencing

Books

One author format: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Title. Edition. (Only include the edition if it is not the first edition) City published: Publisher, Page(s).

Examples:

Two or more authors format: Last name, First initial. and Last name, First initial. (Year published). Title. City: Publisher, Page(s).

Examples:

* Only include the edition if it is NOT the first edition!

Chapters in edited books

Example:

* When citing a chapter in an edited book, the edition is displayed, even when it is the first edition.

Multiple works by same author format: Place the citations in order by year. When sources are published in the same year, place them in alphabetical order by the title.

Example:

Journal articles

Print format: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Article title. Journal, Volume (Issue), Page(s).

Example:

Example:

Newspaper articles

Print format: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Article title. Newspaper, Page(s).

Example:

Example:

eBooks and PDFs

Example:

Archive material

Format: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Title of the material. [format] Name of the university, library, organization, Collection name, code, or number. City.

Example:

Court cases

Format: Case name [Year published] Report abbreviation Volume number (Name or abbreviation of court); First page of court case.

Example:
• Young v. United Parcel Service, Inc. [2015]12-1226 (Supreme Court of the United States); 1.

Dissertations

Format: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Dissertation title. Academic Level of the Author. Name of University, College, or Institution.

Example: